U.S. MARSHALS FUGITIVE TASK FORCE SEEKS NEWTON COUNTY SUSPECTED CHILD MOLESTERS

ATLANTA – The Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force is assisting the Conyers Police Department and the Newton County Sheriff's Office in the hunt for two men suspected of child molestation.

Donald Mac Brown, 34, is a white male with brown hair and blue eyes, weighing approximately 245 pounds and standing 6 feet tall. David Wesley Crawford, 57, is a white male with blue eyes and is predominantly bald, weighing 135 pounds and standing 5 feet 5 inches tall.

Brown is wanted by the Conyers Police Department for sexual exploitation of children. Brown and Crawford are both wanted by Newton County Sheriff's Office for child molestation and other charges. They are both aware that they are wanted and Brown has stated he will not go back to jail. They are both suspected to be armed with firearms and knives. The family believes they may be hiding in the wooded areas of Newton County. The two are possibly occupying a white 1999 Ford F-150 pickup truck with a Georgia tag, plate number BZX9023.

As both of these individuals are considered armed and extremely dangerous, members of the public are advised to not make contact with either of them, but to report any sightings or information regarding them to either Crime Stoppers Atlanta at 404-577-TIPS (8477) or to the SERFTF at 770-508-2500.

The US Marshals-led Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force is a team comprised of law enforcement officers from 31 local, state and federal agencies. The task force's objective is to seek out and arrest the region's most violent offenders. Since the inception of the task force in September 2003, the SERFTF has closed more than 26,000 felony warrants.
